

11-10-00

Abstract:

Imagination & Innovation

The talk describes the process you use when you are trying to be innovative. When you are looking for something whose characteristics you are not sure of - such as finding life in the universe.